KENNESAW, GA (May 26, 2006) STAR 94's Movies Under the Stars returns to downtown Kennesaw on Saturday, June 17 where the feature presentation, Nanny McPhee, will be projected on a giant 40-foot inflatable screen near the Depot. Bring a blanket, lawn chairs, and a picnic basket. The free movie starts at dusk, but viewers should arrive early for a prime viewing spot.

In this wickedly charming tale, Emma Thompson portrays a mysterious woman with special powers who enters the household of the recently widowed Mr. Brown (Colin Firth) and attempts to tame his seven very naughty children. The children have managed to drive away 17 previous nannies, but as Nanny McPhee takes control, they begin to notice that their misbehaving has magical and startling consequences. The film is rated PG for mild thematic elements, some rude humor and brief language.

The Depot is located across the street from the Southern Museum of Civil War and Locomotive History. Parking is available along Main Street, behind the Southern Museum (off Shirley drive) and off Sardis Street (near the intersection of Big Shanty Drive). Cherokee Street from Main Street to Big Shanty Drive will be closed during the movie.

STAR 94's Movies Under the Stars is made possible by The Atlanta-Journal Constitution, Mazda, BellSouth and Bugaboo Creek Steakhouse.
